A. SPECIAL TAX BENEFITS TO THE COMPANY UNDER THE INCOME TAX ACT, 1961 (THE “ACT”)

Deduction in respect of employment of new employees:

In the past, company has not claimed any deduction under section 80JJAA of the Act considering there was no sufficient taxable income. Additional employee cost means the total emoluments paid or payable to additional employees employed in the financial year. Section 115BAA of the Act further provides that domestic companies availing the said option will not be required to pay Minimum Alternate Tax (‘MAT’) on their ‘book profits’ under section 115JB of the Act

However, such a company will no longer be eligible to avail specified exemptions /incentives/deductions under the Act and will also need to comply with the other conditions specified in section 115BAA of the 175 Act. Further, it shall not be allowed to claim set-off of any brought forward loss arising to it on account of additional depreciation and other
